First Annual Diocesan Multi-County Habitat Build Day on June 16

Wouldn't it be cool to spend the day before Father's Day working in honor of your father by making the world a better place for another family?

Saturday, June 16 will be the first annual diocesan multi-county build day of outreach, providing helping hands to Habitat projects in several of the counties in our diocese.

LOST CROSS - Many years ago, when Fr. George Allen was here, he gave to Ken a silver celtic cross, similar to the one hanging behind our altar, hanging on a continuous silver chain. Ken always wore it with his choir vestments. After he died, I wore it with my vestments when I sang in the choir or if I was "organing". I had it hanging on my vestments for a long time but I thought I had brought it home. I have searched the house and cannot find it anywhere. This search has been ongoing, on and off, for the better part of a year or more now. It still has not turned up. I'm thinking that possibly it might have been floating around church and someone might have thought it was homeless and thought to give it a loving home. If anyone has seen this cross or knows anything about its whereabouts, please let me know. It has been bothering me for quite some time.
